President Wilson appeared in much better physical condition to-day

President Wilson appeared in much better physical condition to-day has been relieved by Mr. Bryan's resignation he has recovered very quickly. Late yesterday afternoon he went to the golf links and was Closely Allied With President, doing very well in his score just at the time when the country was agitated by first news of the Cabinet split. This morning the President was up early and with renewed vigor went to his office at 9 o'clock to tackle business that had accumulated during the German crisis.

WAR NEWS IN BRIEF.

Another victory for the Austro-German armies in Galicia was announced officially to-day at Berlin. The town of Stanislau has been captured by the Teutonic forces in their castward sweep.

A despetch from Austrian Press Headquarters to Cologne says that the Russian army in Bukowine, the Austrian Crownland to the east of Galkia, has been cut off from the Russian forces in middle Galicia and is being pressed eastward.

Unofficial desputches from Geneva say the Russians have won a victory in eastern Galicia, checking the Austrians and Germans along the interim. Dniester.
